MACBETH

At a time when politics in traditional terms of propoganda, organizations, and institutions has become unsatisfactory and at times even unsavory, the fact that our presence may facilitate meaningful change in the selfawareness of the people we meet is perhaps one still usable form of political action.

Population Loss: The Role of Transportation and Other Issues (Advances in Transport Policy and Planning Book 2)

Instead, Nigro is among the few poets who wage a real war for renewal in language and thought and who take the personal risks of being considered gadflies. So Franz, a solid, greyhaired man, keeps sitting in his isolated office for days and months on end, without work, without a task, without dignity.
