When the Enemy is Us: Daffy Military and Civilian Episodes in War and Peace

In fact, it's when CSI avoids the trope that it can be jarring. From beginning to end the Bible is concerned primarily with the acts of God for man's salvation, wrought through His covenants with man, particularly His covenant with Israel, through the mediatorship of Moses, whereby He assured Israel of ultimate salvation; and His covenant with the new people of God, the Christian Church, through the mediatorship of Jesus Christ, whereby He achieved this definitive salvation.

The Courtship of Tucker Pain

Garry Adelman: Lee and Longstreet fundamentally disagreed about what was the best course of action after the battle of July 1. They come to understand and perform these roles through socialization, which occurs through four major agents:
family, education, peer groups, and mass media.
