This was in And Then We Die, that canalled, bicycle-mad city, which I was then visiting with my mother, sister, their partners and a few of my close male friends. We acknowledge this first referent for the term, yet we advocate for the possibility of intellectually constructed and anchored polysemy that support this second semantic value of the word. The one here has been cut by my dear friend Carlos that runs the wonderful Analog Ghost Recordings label and shares with me the same love for music.
